

Manila Standard TODAY

November 7, 2009

NetSuite Grows on Cloud Computing

By Alena Mae S. Flores

California-based NetSuite Inc., whose shares are traded in the New York Stock Exchange, plans to expand its Philippines operations as the largest cloud computing applications vendor. The company has released NetSuite Version 2009.2, a software designed for corporate tax payers to meet the requirements in paying withholding tax as well as tax reports and export data set by the Finance Department and Bureau of Internal Revenue.